President's Message for January 1, 2023

To Marilyn Meyers Members and Friends,

Welcome to another great year of ballroom dancing to the sounds of outstanding bands and learning some new steps from master teachers. Our very first dance of the year will be January 21 and will feature the Kelley Fletcher Band and include a Latin Hips dance lesson from none other than Vince Duhon.

My special thanks go to Tommy Quon for his leadership for the last three years as president. He has given selflessly to this organization, and we all owe him a debt of gratitude. It was his idea and encouragement that led to the sponsorship initiative which has helped sustain our bottom line. Thank you, Tommy and Terry, for all you have given to Ballroom Dance Dallas.

Sustaining and growing our membership are among the top goals for 2023. It will take all of us joining, attending, and inviting others to accomplish this goal. In 2022, the majority of our dances fell short of breaking even; therefore, to continue to offer great music on this beautiful dance floor at a reasonable price, we need to increase our attendance. Please join no later than March 18 to be included in the Directory. In addition, sponsorships are also available, and you can obtain information about these at the desk by the entrance and on the website at Ballroom Dance Dallas.

As a reminder, our winter dress code is in place. This includes formal, dressy, or after 5 attire for ladies; gentlemen should wear a coat and tie or tuxedo. Your cooperation in complying will be appreciated.

Have a happy and safe new year. Come join in the fun and "Shake Your Flakes!" at the Snow Ball Dance on January 21.

Happy 2023!

Linda Henrie
President
