The Kelley Fletcher Band: After playing with the Dixie Scots at Highland Park High School, Kelley Fletcher studied music at East Texas State University and Tech Tech University. She earned bachelor's and master's degrees in Music Education and a master's degree in Trumpet Performance. For 28 years, she was band director in several Texas schools, retiring from Greenville High School. After decades of being the lady trumpeter in several area bands including Jack Melick Band and Doc Gibbs, Kelley formed her own group, The Kelley Fletcher Band. Kelley credits Marilisa Safford, Bob Cartwright, Jack Melick, Doc Gibbs, and Tommy Quon for helping her get started in the music business and for encouraging her to start her own band.

Greg and Laura Thrash are competitors and professionals in the country dance world as well as excelling in West Coast Swing which they will teach at our July dance. They like to describe their style as ballroom dancing with hats & boots on! They compete in the UCWDC and ACDA Country Dance Circuits around the country with their team of 20+ students, TEAM THRASHDANCE! They have a combined nine UCWDC World Championship Titles and have coached many of their students to multiple National and World titles. Greg and Laura have been showcased in local, national, and international media chronicling their dancing and their family-owned stained-glass business, Artco Leaded Glass. Little did they know that their first set of Ballroom Lessons in 2007 would someday lead them to be among the most prominent and sought-after Dallas/Ft. Worth dance instructors.
