Vicho Vicencio: Multi-instrumentalist and bandleader Fernando (Vicho) Vicencio is a musician whose career has taken him around the world. He studied music theory and woodwinds, with emphasis on saxophone, privately in Vina del Mar (Chile), his birthplace, and later in Barcelona (Spain). After finishing school, he joined Chile's top dance and show orchestra and toured extensively through South America and Europe. After touring, Vicho stayed in the Old Continent and worked in Spain, Italy, Scandinavia, and Switzerland. He joined the Swiss Radio Light Music Orchestra based in Zurich and became one of the ensemble's main soloists. He also led his own radio combo specializing in Brazilian-style jazz and American standards. In the late 1970s, Vicho relocated to the United States. Later, along with other South American colleagues, he accepted a long-term engagement at an Austin, Texas, renowned club, The Treehouse. At the completion of that engagement, Vicho settled down with his family in Dallas. He rapidly assimilated into the Metroplex's rich musical environment, taught woodwinds, and performed with the finest bands in his new hometown.

Dianne Homan has been a ballroom instructor for the past 11 years. She currently teaches private lessons in Arlington & Mansfield where she is also a realtor and volunteer with the Mansfield Commission of the Arts. She is on staff with the Dallas Dance Classic Ballroom competition, serving as webmaster and MC of the event. Dianne is the former co-owner of EverDance Studio in Arlington, which sadly closed in 2020 due to the pandemic.
